Emptied the Hall.

Ben Butler was once chairman of s meeting at which Rufus Choate was booked for an address. Mr. Choate was about to begin his address when a man crawled up to Butler and whispered to him that the joists in the floor and the supporting beams were giving way because of the heavy pressure on the floor and they were likely to collapse any moment. Butler turu ed to the man and whispered to him, "Keep quiet." Then, turning to the audience, he said: "A my has brought me information that Atside of this hall there are not less than 20,000 people clamoring for admission. I propose to adjourn this meeting to the common, where all can hear Mr. Choate. Now, just see how quickly we can empty this hall." Meanwhile Choate was tugging at Butler's coat tails, saying: "Ben, don't! Stop, Ben! Why, I can't see to read on the com-My voice won't carry in the mon. open air. I can't make them hear," and so on. After most of the audience had left Butler turned around to Choate and said, "Say, Choate, would you rather deliver this speech here in this hall or down below?"-Argonaut.

I handle Long Leaf Yellow Pine exclusively and will furnish age the past year and ask for a portion of your future business. you better lumber, prompt delivery and guarantee satisfaction, for same money you are Paying elsewhere. There is a big difference in buying Just Lumber and in buying the kind of lumber I sell; there is where lots of mistakes are made-when lumber is bought solely on price without regard to quality. The best is none too good for my customers. If you fail to see me before buying you will lose money. Always instruct your carpenter to figure with me and compare my grades of lumber with others and you will be convinced that I carry only the best. GRAN
